Essay Questions – Be prepared to answer the following questions in a succinct, well-organized essay (introduction, body with main points, conclusion). Remember to read the question carefully, answer all the parts of the question, and include the details it asks for.

1. How did the astonishing wealth generated for the Spanish crown by its conquest of the New World influence European colonial exploration throughout the sixteenth century? In your answer, discuss ways it both encouraged and limited interest in exploration.

2. Tobacco dominated European settlement in the Chesapeake during the seventeenth century. How did tobacco agriculture shape the region's development? In your answer, be sure to address the demographic and geographic features of the colony.

3. To what extent did the New England and middle colonies become more alike during the seventeenth century? To what extent did they remain distinctive (different)? In your answer, consider religions, economies, systems of governance, and patterns of settlement in the colonies.

4. Varied immigration patterns contributed to important differences among the British colonies. Compare and contrast patterns of immigration to the middle and southern colonies. Who came, and how did they get there? How did they shape the economic, cultural, and political characteristics of each colony?
